

Dear Frank,

7/17/99

Ken Brooten was a Florida lawyer who was associated with Texas Congressman Gonzalez and for a short period after Sprague was fired was chief counsel. I know him slightly and liked him. It was probably because he'd met the Lovelady's when he was on the Commission that he became their lawyer. Which I'd not known. Ken was present some weeks before it happened when I told Sprague he would be fired, that what he was doing would not be tolerated in any Congress.

Thanks for the picture and the SASE. Pressed for time so it all helps.

Lil came home yesterday. She is still feeble.

I've no idea what Ken does or does not know about the shirt. Ask him.

I do not have any address but if he is still in practice he'll be in Martindale, Hubbell. Was in Central FL, where the Univ and its law school are.

Thanks and best,

Garold
